3. Review status of the Marin County Department of Public Works (DPW) Coastal Permit submittal for Bolinas downtown parking ordinances.

DPW submitted their plan for Coastal Permit and local approval was obtained on November 16, 2023 from the County Zoning officer. With no appeals it was sent to the Coastal Commission for their review which should have been completed by 12/26. However, the Commission had some technical issues with Community Development regarding the submission. At the time of our meeting today, they have yet to be resolved. Once resolved, another 10-day review period needs to start again. It is unclear when the ordinances will pass the current hurdle. Member Hirsch will contact Supervisor Rodoni about the matter. The BCPUD Board will be made aware by the General Manager at their 1/17/24 meeting.
